

March 2-4, 2018

Hyatt Regency, Baltimore, MD

December 4, 2017

Dear Key Club:

The Capital District Key Club Board is preparing for the 69th Annual Capital District Key Club Leadership Conference (DCON) at the Hyatt Regency Baltimore, Baltimore, Maryland, to be held March 2-4, 2018. This year's DCON theme is island paradise with the tagline of "Riding the Waves of Service!"

The Hyatt Regency staff is working along with the District Board and Adult Committee to make the conference an outstanding event. The weekend starts with opening session featuring a keynote leadership/motivational speaker and a meet and greet activity on Friday night. The District Board is planning several motivational programs, educational forums and workshops, and other fun activities on Saturday. There will also be a service fair on Saturday afternoon highlighting individual club or divisional projects and more. The Governor's gala dinner and dance on Saturday night will be a highlight of the conference. Seating for this will be assigned on a first registered basis. To be considered registered, all forms and money must be in. The conference will end on Sunday morning with the House of Delegates voting session, a sit-down buffet breakfast and the installation ceremony of the 2018-19 District Board.

We are continuing with online registration this year. Registration will officially open on Wednesday, January 3, 2018. The change to the online format was incredibly helpful to the Capital District last year and we have taken some of your comments and some of our own pain points to make it easier to register. Clubs will have the option to pay by credit card when registration is complete or can be invoiced by the district through Paypal. As always, the option to pay by check is available.

On Saturday morning and afternoon, there will be several educational forums and workshops conducted by District Board members. Students will also be able to participate in the oratorical, essay, and talent contests. There will be workshops specific for adult faculty and Kiwanis advisors. Clubs will be on their own for dinner on Friday and lunch on Saturday. In addition to the motivational and educational experiences of the conference, attendees will be involved in the election of the 2018-19 District Officers through the House of Delegates (voting session) and caucus session (speeches and question/answer time for candidates). Award winners will be announced for the various individual and club competitions that will be judged during the conference at the Governor's Gala on Saturday night. To view awards criteria, please consult your student lieutenant governor. You can also view many of the awards on the Capital District website at <http://www.capitalkeyclub.org/district-awards-2018.html>.

We are again continuing the Parade of Checks on Friday evening. The Parade of Checks, a special part of the program, will give all of the clubs and divisions that have raised money for any project the chance to stand in line and announce one by one how much they are contributing and their club name. One student representative per club (chosen by the club) will make the announcement and have the chance to present a check (if they wish) to District Kiwanis Family leaders and shake their hands on stage while doing so. This activity will further engage all clubs in the conference as well as prove to be an inspirational and powerful show of collective energy and efforts – and that is what the Kiwanis Family is all about! If the club is making a contribution to the Eliminate project or the Boys and Girls Club, a check can be made out to Capital District Key Club and brought to the convention. It is fine for clubs to bring multiple checks for this only.

The annual Service Fair will be a special aspect of the weekend. This is an opportunity for clubs and divisions to highlight successful or unique projects and get new service project ideas and for students to learn more about both International and District service partners. Award-winning contest entries will be available to see as samples and all branches of the Kiwanis Family will be represented. The Service Fair will be on Saturday afternoon. The General Session on Sunday morning will feature a hot breakfast buffet.

Our keynote speaker this year is Kent Julian, an entertaining speaker for people of all ages. Kent is a successful lifestyle entrepreneur who previously led a national youth organization. After 20 years of non-profit work, Kent launched a successful lifestyle business and spends much of this time traveling around the country speaking to groups of all ages. Kent has spoken at several Kiwanis Family events and we look forward to hosting Kent Julian at this year's conference, where he will speak at Friday's opening session and facilitate workshops on Saturday morning. Check out his website at www.liveitforward.com.

Please plan to arrive at the Hyatt Regency between 3-5 p.m., on Friday for check in. Rooms will not be ready before this time. Your cooperation will be appreciated. We will have a luggage storage area if you wish to arrive early and tour the Baltimore Harbor area, which is within walking distance (about 5 minutes) from the hotel.

Please refer to the enclosed packet for all of the information needed to understand, register for, and secure hotel reservations for this year's District Leadership Conference. We look forward to seeing you in Baltimore in March!

District Administrator
